HELD FOR FORGERY, ESCAPES FROM GLENDALE JAIL

Files Yale Lock and Pries Open Door; Goes Away In Speedy Automobile

Henry P. Willsey, alias George H. Wilsen, who was held here in the city jail on a charge of forgery, escaped last night by filing a Yale lock on one of the cages in Fire Station No. 1 and prying open the door. He then unbolted a rear door of the fire station and hied to the hills in the vicinity of Sunland.

At 6 o'clock this morning he left the mountain village for parts unknown in his new and speedy Willys-St. Claire racing car, bearing California license number 593-45. The police believe they can capture him before he gets out of the state and they have notified the deputy sheriffs of southern California.

Held on $3000 Bail

At his arraignment yesterday before Police Judge F. H. Lowe, Willsey was held on $3000 bail, which he failed to provide. He was remanded to the city jail for further hearing and Chief of Police A. O. Martin took particular precaution in having the patrolmen visit the cages in the fire station every two hours during the night. The escaped prisoner evidently got away shortly before dawn with the aid of an accomplice.

The file which he used was lying on a cot about seven feet away from the cage, one of the firemen having used it yesterday to repair a trunk. It is believed that this was handed to Willsey by his accomplice.

Lumber Company Victim

The Bentley-Schoeneman Lumber company, it is alleged, was the victim of one of Willsey's checks. It is said that he ordered a load of lumber sent to an address which could not be found and gave in payment a check larger than the amount of his bill. The lumber company issued him one of their checks for the balance which Willsey is said to have cashed immediately.

As soon as the forgery was discovered a state-wide search was instituted which led George E. Bentley, of the lumber company, and Detective John Scales to Hanford and other points and finally resulted in the arrest of Willsey.

Pleasing Program Is Prepared for Local Music Club

An interesting program has been arranged by the Glendale Music club, under the direction of Mrs. Spencer Robinson, for tomorrow evening in the music room of the high school for active and affiliate members of the club. This will be preceded by a short meeting of the executive board.

The artists who will take part in the program, which was published in detail in The Glendale Evening News of Tuesday, include Keaumoku A. Lewis, concert baritone; Mrs. Enona Hopkins, harp soloist; Arion quartette, which is composed of Neva Chilberg, first violin; Mamie Smith, second violin; Marion Matthews, cello, and Mrs. Enona Hopkins, harp.

Mr. Lewis has appeared in recitals and opera in the large cities of the east and toured with the great Constantino. He is a resident of Glendale and a very talented singer. Mr. Lewis is also a member of the Glendale Music club.

The members of the Arion Quartette are well known in Chicago and other cities of the east and will prove another treat for the members of the club. He is a pupil of Thorna, who was the teacher of Galli Curci and Rosa Ponselles, as well as other noted singers.

Mrs. Hopkins, concert harpist, will be remembered as having taken part in several concerts in this city since coming to Glendale from Chicago. She found popular favor with music club members when she took part in the community night concert given by the club the evening of May 6, last.

PAUL RICHARDSON WRITES

Mrs. Ella W. Richardson of 315 North Brand boulevard is in receipt of a very interesting letter from her son, Paul Richardson, who is aboard ship at Manila. In the letter he stated that he believed the ship would be leaving in a few days for China, Antwerp, Amsterdam, England and other ports. In telling about the natives of the Philippine Islands he said that they lived chiefly on rice and fish, and eat with chop sticks.

POLICEMAN GOT BILLYGOAT

How did Officer R. L. McLean do it? That is the question the housewives residing in the 600 block on West Lexington Drive are asking this afternoon. For the brave patrolman roped a billy goat which had sent the women scurrying to shelter earlier in the day. No clothes lines are reported missing and the animal now is munching tin cans at the Glendale stables until called for by its owner. The city pound also boasts a captive in one brindle dog. The police would like to know who owns it.

MOTHERS' CLUB TO MEET

The Mothers' club of the Acacia avenue school will hold its regular meeting tomorrow.

Los Angeles Will Hear About Queen Contest by Legion

MISS MARGUERITE M. ECKLES
Popular high school girl candidate in the American Legion Carnival Queen Race

Interest in the Glendale American Legion carnival queen contest will be spread to Los Angeles, according to L. W. Hoge, who is managing the event.

Next Tuesday the matrons and maids will be taken to Los Angeles on a decorated motor truck and they will sell the voting coupons to the blase frequenters of Broadway and other business streets of the neighboring metropolis.

Miss Marguerite M. Eckles, whose picture is printed today, is another one of the pretty and popular high school girl candidates in the race for the honor of being queen and presiding over the festivities of Armistice week, November 7 to 12. She is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Eckles of 328 North Orange street. She claims the support of the city hall force because her father is the jolly health officer.

With the announcement yesterday of the important shows to be staged here during the celebration and the reports of plans for other events, the nominees have taken added interest in the contest and it is expected that the next announcement of standings will show a new line-up. Miss Dorothy Morton took the lead from Miss Winifred Sternberg in the last figures made public.

The Tuesday Afternoon club is very active in behalf of Mrs. Warren Roberts and while many of the ticket sales for her have not been reported, it would seem, young women who are competing for the coveted prizes will have to organize their friends to keep their place in the sun.

Dr. Bird Will Address Y Captains and Teams

Rex C. Kelly, Y. M. C. A. secretary for the Glendale district, 106A East Broadway, conferred yesterday with Dr. Rensen Du Bois Bird, recently appointed president of Occidental college, on the matter of adressing the Y. M. C. A. captains and their teams next Sunday, and Dr. Bird stated that he would be at the Presbyterian church at noon Sunday to give the address. This will be the first appearance of Dr. Bird to give a speech in Glendale, and the leaders in the Y. M. C. A. campaign are very pleased to have the opportunity of hearing him.

Dr. Bird will speak on the subject of the value of Y. M. C. A. work to the growing boy, and the eleven captains and their teams for the drive to raise the district budget will be present.

MRS. FARLANDER HOSTESS

Mrs. William Farlander of 354 Riverdale Drive was hostess yesterday at a beautifully-appointed, three-course luncheon. She was assisted by her sister, Mrs. Manbert. The guests were Mrs. John Frazer, Mrs. Charles Rice, Mrs. Robert Yost, Mrs. Richard Gilbert, Mrs. Ethel Oliver, Mrs. English, Mrs. Minnie Patterson, Mrs. George Lyons, Mrs. Colin Cable, Mrs. Manbert and the hostess, Mrs. William Farlander.

The dining table was most attractively centered with lavender cosmos. The living room was decorated with large bowls of chrysanthemums, which, with the shades drawn and the soft glow from table and floor lamps, made a quite beautiful effect. In the afternoon Mrs. George Lyons rendered several splendid piano solos, which were very much enjoyed.

FRED C. GILBERT MARRIES

Fred C. Gilbert, of Bowling & Gilbert's confectionery store at Colorado and Brand boulevard, and Miss Irma Olea Grinnell were married yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the home of Rev. C. M. Calderwood, with only immediate relatives attending. The bride is the daughter of Rev. J. E. Grinnell of Brighton, Iowa, and arrived in Glendale from that city yesterday morning, and Mr. Gilbert is also from that state. Rev. Calderwood formerly resided in the same community in Iowa as both the bride and bridegroom. Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert are temporarily located at 218 South Central avenue until their new home at the corner of Elk and Glendale avenues is completed.

BUSINESS MEN TO HEAR PLANS OF CREDIT BUREAU

Meeting to Be Held Tonight at Chamber of Commerce to Discuss Project

President Weir and Secretary Vandewater of the Los Angeles Credit Men's association and Frank H. Pilling, secretary of the Everett, Wash., Merchants' Credit association, will meet with the business men of Glendale tonight at the Chamber of Commerce headquarters at which time a similar organization will be formed.

More than three score local merchants are expected to be in attendance and the following already have signified their intention of becoming members of the credit rating bureau:

Fox-Woodsum Lumber company, R. C. Chambers, Jr., Neale & Gregg, Boulevard Branch of Los Angeles Trust and Savings bank, Monarch Auto Supply Co., H. S. Webb & Co., Glendale Electric Co., Jewel Electric Co., Glendale Sheet Metal Works, Glendale Publishing and Printing Co., Glendale Paint and Paper company, H. F. Beauchamp, Cornwell & Kelty, Glendale Nash Sales, First National bank, Glendale Music company, Packer Auto company, C. E. McPeek, Irish Linen Store, Quality Grocery, Coker & Taylor, Barnes-Shuck Music Co., Valley Supply and others.

Speaks at Hollywood

Secretary James M. Rhoades of the Chamber of Commerce today noon talked before the Hollywood board of trade on the progress made by Glendale in the last six months. He impressed the neighboring community with the rapid strides made in building here as well as the fact that the Chamber here has more than 1000 members.

The Chamber of Commerce committee last night signed a lease with the Citizens' Building corporation for the upstairs rooms of the new building which was erected as the result of Mr. Rhoades' efforts to find suitable quarters for the growing organization. Practically all other rooms in the building are spoken for, it is said.

Interesting Program Given to Members of Mutual Benefit Circle

The members of the Mutual Benefit Reading circle, who braved the heat to come to the meeting yesterday, and there were many, were amply repaid by the very interesting session which was held at the library, Mrs. A. A. Barton presiding.

Mrs. Reed Heustis reviewed an article by Bruce Barton, "You Can't Fool Your Other Self," which proved to be very entertaining. An original selection by James W. Foley was given by Mrs. A. A. Barton.

After the lunch hour Mrs. H. V. Henry continued reading from the book, "All the Children of All the People." The chapter read took up the history of the development of the public school system of the United States. The author of the book stated that in spite of the fact that the course of study is planned so that every child be prepared for college, only six out of every thousand children enrolled in school graduate from high school. He further stated that the classical ideal took too little account of the personal equation, and that a few of the children of a few of the people were fitted for a few situations in life, instead of all the children of all the people being educationally equipped for life.

Law Section of Club Meets With Mrs. Perry

The regular meeting of the parliamentary law section of the Tuesday Afternoon club met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. A. Perry, 111 North Louise street, with a splendid attendance of enthusiastic members. The study of organization was taken up at that time under the direction of Mrs. Harry Greenwalt, curator of the section. Plans were then formulated for a club program to be given by the section. Delicious refreshments were then served by the hostess. The meeting then adjourned to meet in two weeks at the home of Miss Eva Daniels.

HI-Y BANQUET IS TONIGHT

Members of the Hi-Y will enjoy a banquet and an address by George R. Andrews, 122 North Central avenue, at the Christian church bungalow this evening, the event to take place immediately after the football game is played with the South Pasadena squad on the latter's grounds. The members of high school cabinet will be honor guests at the banquet tonight. The speaker of the evening will be George R. Andrews who will speak on the effects of evil habits in early life. About fifty members are expected to be present for the banquet tonight.

VISITORS AT SANTA MONICA

Mrs. T. R. Wilson of 1151 San Rafael avenue and Mrs. H. Hochhausen of 610 East Lomita avenue spent Tuesday and Wednesday at Santa Monica, where they visited their mother.

Today's World News In Brief

(By International News Service to Glendale Evening News)

RUMOR MAN WHO MAILED BOMB IS AMERICAN CITIZEN

PARIS, Oct. 20.—An unverified report was printed by La Liberte today saying that the man who mailed the bomb which wrecked two rooms in the American residence here was an American who had been refused a passport.

SYNDICALIST OUTBREAK AT BARCELONA IS SUPPRESSED

MADRID, Oct. 20.—A syndicalist outbreak took place at Barcelona today but was quickly suppressed by the garrison. The government claims it has the situation in hand everywhere despite agitation by radicals of all shades of opinion over the Moroccan war.

SLUG MESSENGER, ESCAPE WITH CANCELLED CHECKS

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 20.—Five armed bandits shortly before noon today held up and slugged into unconsciousness a messenger for the St. Anthony Falls state bank, escaping in an automobile with a pouch of cancelled checks which the messenger was bringing to the bank from the clearing house.

FIST FIGHT IN CHAMBER OF DEPUTIES; RIOT FOLLOWS

PARIS, Oct. 20.—Violent uproar broke out in the chamber of deputies today when debate was renewed upon the government's general policy. Deputy Mendel of the Clemenceau faction, attacked M. Escoffier, a socialist deputy, punching him in the jaw. There was a wild burst of cheering and jeering.

REVOLUTION OVERTURNS PORTUGUESE GOVERNMENT

LISBON, Oct. 20.—The Portuguese government has been overturned by the monarchists and militarists in a bloodless revolution and today a new ministry was formed by Colonel Manuel Maria Coelho. Troops are in possession of all the strategic centers in Lisbon and the suburbs. The government did not attempt to resist but resigned without opposition.

DR. BRUMFIELD IS GUILTY OF FIRST DEGREE MURDER

ROSEBURG, Ore., Oct. 20.—Dr. Richard M. Brumfield must pay with his life for murdering Dennis Russell, rancher, for a jury early today found him guilty of murder in the first degree, after a deliberation of about four hours. The state charged that the dentist killed Russell and tried to substitute the body as his own with the hope of collecting $16,000 life insurance. Insanity was the defense.

MUCH GOVERNMENT PROPERTY WILL BE AUCTIONED OFF

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—More than 100 parcels of war department real estate, scattered through twenty-nine states and including abandoned forts, posts, rifle ranges, etc., are to be sold to "the highest, adequate responsible bidder," the war department announced today. Wherever possible, it was stated, preference in the purchase will be given the communities in which the property is located. Special consideration also will be given patriotic societies that desire to obtain sites of historical interest.

SCORES OF BOYS IN SCHOOL MADE MYSTERIOUSLY ILL

ST. CHARLES, Ill., Oct. 20.—Officials today sought to learn the cause of the sudden illness that affected 100 of the 850 confined at the state school for boys here after the noon dinner on Tuesday. Dr. A. L. Mann, Elgin city physician, made tests of a beef stew which had been served at the dinner. "It could not have been ptomaine poisoning," said Colonel C. B. Adams, head of the institution. "No canned food was served. We used only fresh meat and vegetables." Colonel Adams was trying to learn whether roach powder might have been accidentally spilled on the food. He said that while some of the boys were rather ill for a short time, they all recovered quickly and there were no serious effects.

LANSING SEEKS TO PREVENT NEW CHINESE CONFLICT

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—Robert Lansing, former secretary of state, who will be chief adviser to the Chinese government during the armament and far east conference, has undertaken the role of mediator in an effort to draw together the conflicting elements of north and south China, it was learned here today. Internal disorders in China, now akin to civil war, are such as to cause officials here grave concern, constituting a menace to the decisions of the conference itself. The recognized government at Pekin is admittedly unstable and Dr. Sun Yat Sen, president of the south China government, has left Canton to head his troops in their thrust northward. The initial effort of Lansing to bring the discordant elements together at Washington has met with failure, it was learned today.

ARBUCKLE IN S. F. FOR CONFERENCE WITH ATTORNEYS

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 20.—Roscoe ("Fatty") Arbuckle arrived here from Los Angeles today for a series of conferences with his attorneys preparatory to the opening of his trial for manslaughter November 7. The film comedian was also to appear before United States Commissioner Hayden this afternoon to answer to a federal charge of having had liquor in his possession illegally on the occasion of the gay party here following which Virginia Rappe died. Special Assistant Attorney General Robert H. McCormack, who is handling the federal charge against Arbuckle and who has just completed an exhaustive investigation of the source of the Arbuckle liquor, issued a statement today absolving the St. Francis hotel management of blame in connection with presence of liquor at the Arbuckle party

POLICE SEEK TO FIND SENDERS OF POISONED CANDY

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—Postoffice inspectors and the police continued today their efforts to trace the sender of poisoned candy that endangered the lives of six nurses at the West End hospital. All of the nurses today had virtually recovered. Benjamin and William Zimmerman, admitted rivals for the hand of Miss Helen Rosenfeld, the nurse to whom the candy was sent, were held by the police for further questioning. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Krause, who were taken into custody yesterday were released after being questioned. Mrs. Krause is a sister of the Zimmerman brothers. Postoffice Inspector E. H. Thiele was investigating reports that threatening letters had been received by Dr. Benjamin Breakstone, superintendent of the hospital from the husband of a woman who died during a Caesarian operation.

President Harding Makes Inquiry Into Railroad Situation

By H. K. REYNOLDS
Written for International News Service.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 20.—President Harding delved again into the railroad situation today within two hours after his return from his brief trip to Virginia.

Shortly after his return to the White House, President Harding summoned C. D. McChord, chairman of the Interstate Commerce commission, to the White House to make a report on the situation. Guy D. Goff, acting attorney general in the absence of Attorney General Daugherty, also was summoned and the three spent an hour going over the general situation.

While none of the conferees would discuss the meeting it was understood the discussion hinged about the three big rate cases which the Interstate Commerce commission has now before it and upon which an announcement is expected soon. It was indicated there will be an early reduction in rates ordered on grain and grain products.

Goff said he was "just sitting in" at the conference.

McChord said any public announcement would have to be made by the president.

It is known, however, that the president is of the opinion that there must be an immediate reduction of rates, and this morning's conference was taken as a step in the speeding up of the Interstate Commerce commission's action in the matter.

BULLETINS

Minister's Defense Rests

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 20.—The defense in the case of Rev. Edward R. Stephenson, Protestant minister, charged with killing Father Jas. A. Coyle, Catholic priest, now on trial here, rested its case, shortly before noon today.

More Ships for England

LONDON, Oct. 20.—Great Britain has placed orders for the construction of four more capital ships for the Navy, Premier Lloyd George announced in the House of Commons this afternoon.

Congratulate W. S. Stone

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The Farmers' National Council through Benjamin C. Marsh, Managing Director, today sent a message to Warren S. Stone of the Brotherhood of Railroad Engineers, congratulating the members of all railway brotherhoods and shopcrafts "for challenging autocracy of the same financial interests which crushed agriculture."

Senators Near Injury

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 20.—Senators Pomerene, Democrat, of Ohio, and Swanson, Democrat, of Virginia, narrowly escaped serious injury today when large sections of plaster fell from the ceiling of the President's room off the Senate chamber and partly wrecked the big chandelier suspended in the center.

Full Accounting Asked

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 21.—The Shipping board and the Emergency Fleet corporation were called upon for a complete accounting of the debts and claims outstanding against them by a resolution sponsored by Senator Poindexter, Republican, of Washington, which the Senate adopted today by a viva voce vote. Severe criticism of the shipping board's present and past policies by Senator Poindexter, Borah, Republican, of Idaho; LaFollette, Republican, of Wisconsin; King, Democrat, of Utah, and other Senators preceded the adoption of the resolution.

W. E. Borthick Honored by Birthday Gathering

W. E. Borthick, oldest real estate dealer in Glendale, 244 South Brand boulevard, who celebrated his 82nd birthday yesterday, was guest of honor last night at a well arranged party at his home, 206 West Elk street. Neighbors began to call late in the afternoon and until toward the end of evening, callers continued to arrive to extend their congratulations to Mr. Borthick.

"And they didn't forget me, either," mused Mr. Borthick at his officer today. "No, sir, not a one of them. Every one had some remembrance, and I received everything from something to eat to something to smoke. It certainly makes one feel good to be so well remembered by so many.

"And that birthday cake, it was a magnificent one, and I had to blow out the eighty-seven candles, too."

A distinguished visitor from a distance during the evening was Dr. Sherman Marks of Tooele, Utah.

Herbert Smith Returns From Grocers' Meeting

Herbert Smith has just returned from a hurried trip to Del Monte where as president of the California Retail Grocers and Merchants association, he was called to attend a conference of the executive board relative to the distribution of food products through the hands of the retailer. A discussion was also held as to the economic conditions and its effect on the retailer. Mr. Smith reports the results as most instructive and encouraging.

PENNSYLVANIA ROAD LEADS CAMPAIGN ON R. R. BOARD

Claims Government Bureau Is Without Jurisdiction In Its Present Dispute

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 20.—The administration has taken steps by which the governors of all the states will work in co-operation with the federal government in the event of a nation-wide railroad strike, Secretary of Commerce Hoover announces this afternoon.

By LUTHER A. HUSTON
Written for International News Service

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—The Pennsylvania railroad today denied the jurisdiction of the United States Railway Labor board to intervene in the dispute between the road and its employes over the election of employe representatives to deal with the company with regard to rules and working conditions.

In a statement read to the board by C. V. Heitzman, attorney for the road, it was asserted that the Pennsylvania had violated no order of the board. The statement was prepared by Samuel Rea, president of the Pennsylvania and approved by the Board of Directors.

Rea's statement admitted that the labor board has jurisdiction over rules and working conditions. It was contended, however, that the present dispute dealt with a matter of procedure and the right of the board to decide methods of compliance with its rules was denied.

The statement contended that compliance with the order of the board directing the Pennsylvania to call a new election of employe representatives would compel the road to deal with shopcrafts organizations that would impair their usefulness and value. The shopcrafts, Rea asserted, stand for the closed shop, the sympathetic strike and limitation of output, three principles which Rea asserted were incompatible with efficient operation.

After Heitzman had read Rea's statement, Ben W. Hooper, a member of the public group of the Labor board, undertook to question him.

Hooper asked if it was not true that the Pennsylvania was in accord with the board in the view that the transportation act required the road to confer with the shopcrafts. Heitzman replied that the subject was controversial and evaded direct answer.

United States Railway Labor Board on Trial Today

By LUTHER A. HUSTON
Written for International News Service

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—The United States Railway Labor board went on trial for its life today, with itself as the trial judge and the administration at Washington as the jury.

Two cases came before the board

Steam Shovel Being Used on Excavation for Church Building

A steam shovel from Los Angeles arrived on the job today and got busy excavating 3000 cubic yards of earth for the basement of the Christian church building at the northeast corner of Louise and Colorado streets and contractor W. G. Boyd, 201 North Brand boulevard states that work will be rushed along as rapidly as possible.

Considerable work was required in getting the grounds ready for excavation. The old church building had to be raised and moved back from the foundation where it is now blocked up and will be used for services while construction will progress on the new building.

According to the plans which have been drawn up by Robert H. Orr of Los Angeles, a member of the International Architects' association, who will furnish plans for the new Presbyterian church at the northwest corner of Louise and Harvard streets, the old building will be joined to the new building and the exterior plastered. A colonial classical type has been planned. The new building will have six departments for the Sunday school and will have a large auditorium which will seat 900.

The old building will be used for primary classes in Sunday school work. The basement under the old building will be utiiized for the kitchen and furnace rooms.

The ventilating system of the new structure is designed on a plan that will allow a complete change of air every fifteen minutes. Among the many other features a new pipe organ is being contemplated, states the Rev. Clifford A. Cole. No definite arrangements have been made as yet for the instrument, but the pastor says it is the desire of the congregation to have one installed.

In the preparation for construction of the new building the church bungalow has been moved to the back of the lot where it will be used for recreational purposes.

The Rev. Mr. Cole states it would be difficult to say just when the new church would be ready for services, but that it was thought next March would see the congregation enjoying the new building.

TERRORISM AGAINST U. S. DIPLOMATS IS UNDER WAY

Campaign Follows Attempt to Assassinate Ambassador Myron T. Herrick

By WILLIAM COOK
Written for International News Service.

PARIS, Oct. 20.—A systematic campaign of terrorism against American diplomats in continental Europe by communists is in full swing today. Following the attempt to assassinate Myron T. Herrick, American Ambassador to France, reports were received here that hostile demonstrations had been made against the American legation in Brussels. Death threats have been received in letters by the American diplomatic envoys in Paris, Brussels and Rome.

The demonstrations constituted a protest by European communists against the conviction in Massachusetts of Niccolo Sacco and Bartholomeo Vanzetti, two Italians, for the murder of Frederick A. Parmenter, paymaster of a shoe concern in Braintree.

Extra police guards were thrown about the American embassy in this city and a bodyguard has been provided for Ambassador Herrick. Communist centers are being searched by the police for the ringleaders in the bomb plot against the diplomat's life.

Pershing Under Guard

When General Pershing left for Cherbourg today he was guarded by a strong detachment of police and sercet service agents.

The communist newspaper, Humanite, boldly stated that it was "dissatisfied with the effect of the bomb" and printed a summons to a monster mass meeting Friday to be followed by another on Sunday. These meetings, said the newspaper, will demand a reprieve for the "two innocent martyrs in America who are victims of an infamous capitalistic conspiracy."

Marcel Cachin, communist member of the Chamber of Deputies, said that he was in no way responsible for the attack on Ambassador Herrick.

"It is true," said M. Cachin, "that I wrote some articles in which I said that the American embassy had received numerous protests which had remained unanswered and that I said that the time had come to act. I was merely thinking of the mass meeting of protest when I wrote that. The mass meeting on Friday is perfectly legal."

Receives Congratulations

Mr. Herrick went about his duties as usual today. He received many congratulations from friends in France and America upon his escape. The infernal machine was contained in a small oblong package, wrapped in fine white paper and labeled "perfume." It had been sent by registered mail addressed personally to the ambassador. The package was delivered at the embassy, but an attach, believing that it was a gift, carried it to Mr. Herrick's residence. It was turned over to Mr. Herrick's butler who began to open it. As soon as the cords had been removed from the box a spring was released and the servant heard a buzzing sound which aroused his suspicions. He threw the box through the doorway and turned to run. It exploded almost instantly and a small fragment of metal inflicted a flesh wound on the butler's arm.

The explosion wrecked part of the house and brought Mr. Herrick and several servants rushing to the scene. The police were immediately notified. Mr. Herrick has turned over to the police prefecture a number of threatening letters he had received, but some of them had been destroyed in the belief that they came only from cranks.

International Inquiry

The investigation is taking on an international trend in view of the co-ordinated threats against American diplomats in Belgium and Italy. The secret service is anxious to find the fountain head from which the campaign was directed and to ascertain the exact relationship between the two Italians in Massachussetts and the communist organization in continental Europe.

The conservative press criticised the activities of M. Cachin, declaring he was "morally responsible for the attack because of his violent articles in the radical press."

M. Cachin resented this imputation saying: "I suppose some fanatic misunderstood the socialist campaign in behalf of the condemned men in America, and acted on his own responsibility."

The police threaten to suppress the communist press as a result of the agitations.

Police Prefect Lullier, who is personally investigating the crime, told the International News Service he had found the bomb was mailed at the Rue Pontoise postoffice station in the Latin quarter. One theory is that the sender may have posed as one of the great number of students of all nationalities who live in the Latin quarter.

Mr. Herrick told the police prefect he was still receiving threatening letters.

American Consulate at Brest Attacked by Crowds of Reds

BREST, Oct. 20.—A mob of several thousand persons singing revolutionary songs and waving red flags attacked the American Consulate here today.

A number of windows were broken by flying missiles.

Police were rushed to the scene and restored order.

A police guard was placed around the building.

"Release Sacco and Vanzetti," shouted the mob.

The consulate was bombarded with stones. A number of persons were slightly injured. The ringleaders were arrested.

Seek to Trace Letters

ROME, Oct. 20.—The police were engaged today in attempting to trace the origin of threatening letters which have been sent to Richard Washburn Child, the American Ambassador. They are also seeking the source which inspired hostile communist demonstrations against the Embassy. Extra guards have been placed about the Embassy and the police have offered a bodyguard to the American diplomat. News of the attack against the life of Myron T. Herrick, American Ambassador at Paris, has increased the anxiety here. Italian communists are demanding the release of two Italians who were convicted of murder at Braintree, Mass.

The erroneous report has been current here that the men already have been executed.

No Interest in Case

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—Although the state department has no official reports that there is a communist plot in Europe against American Embassies because of the conviction of Niccolo Sacco and B. Vanzetti for murder in Massachusetts, it was stated today that the Federal government has no interest in this case.

State Department officials said the case was handled by the state courts and there has been no occasion for the government to intervene or to communicate with the Italian government concerning the case.

Police Guard Legation

BRUSSELS, Oct. 20.—A heavy police guard was put around the United States Legation here today as the result of a hostile demonstration by communists.

Crowds surged before the legation shouting "release Sacco and Vanzetti." They grew so threatening that extra policemen were rushed to the scene and the mobs were dispersed with batons.

As a queen in exile from her petty kingdom, "somewhere in Europe," Constance Binney makes an appealing and winsome little heroine in "Such a Little Queen," which is the feature picture Friday and Saturday at the T. D. & L. Theatre.

When her throne totters and revolution disrupts her little country, she flees to America, with her dog and her bird and her very much bejewelled crown, but no other practical assets, save that delightful personal quality, charm. Of course, the darkest hours of her exile precede a very rosy dawn, and all ends well with the little queen reseated upon her old throne. Miracles of the Jungle complete the film program.

The T. D. & L. also is offering another selected Meiklejohn and Dunn vaudeville road show on Friday and Saturday. Headlining this week's program will be the Pantages act "Heartstrings" which just recently played in Los Angeles. Herbert Bethew and Company is responsible for this playlet of life itself. In bringing this act to Glendale Meiklejohn & Dunn show their endeavor to please.

Another attraction certain to please will be the Lytell Twins in a series of beautiful and colorful dances. They come here under the direction of Ted Shawn, America's premier dancer. When it is taken into consideration that Mr. Shawn produces but three or four acts a year that he allows to tour, the big value of this attraction is readily seen. The act recently had its premier in Los Angeles. Others on the program are a novelty trio, composed of Hawaiian instrumentalists and vocalists; Lee and Sam, two clever boys at a piano and a novelty act.

Attention is directed to the daily matinees and the fact that prices are not advanced for the vaudeville programs.

Today Betty Compson, starring "At the End of the World," will be seen.

Mrs. Donald Magill Hostess at Shower Given Bride-elect

Mrs. Donald Magill of 475 West Maple street was hostess at a shower last Saturday night in honor of a bride-to-be this coming week-end, Miss Frances Magill of 457 West Colorado boulevard. The home was prettily decorated in blue and pink with cosmos and chrysanthemums used to carry out the color scheme. There was the little Kewpie bride presiding over the gift table and all the guests were assembled in the darkened rooms when Miss Magill and her fiance, Walter Piper, arrived at the place for the evening. A kewpie cake and pink mint ice cream were features of the dainty collation which was served to the eighteen friends of Miss Magill.

More than 1,700 locomotives were made in the Philadelphia district in 1919.

Hot Weather Cause of Numerous Forest Fires

SANTA BARBARA, Oct. 20.—The hot weather of Tuesday night and yesterday has caused the outbreak of nearly a dozen fires on the Santa Barbara national forest, or close to the reserve. There is a bad fire on San Lucas ranch, in the mountains northwest of the city, and fifty men have been sent out to fight it. The Hollister ranch is also ablaze, though buildings or stock are not yet jeopardized on either.

Another fire has broken out in the midst of the Ojai Valley oil fields and some of the derricks are known to be menaced.

Ferry, Mrs. Mary O'Brien, Mrs. T. Keleher, Mrs. J. A. Endicott, Miss Susan Wendell, Mrs. F. Salmacia, Mrs. Jesse Smith, Mrs. C. Griffin, Mrs. D. Dixon, Mrs. J. Monahan, Mrs. H. M. Doll and Mrs. M. J. Brennan.

It's National House Numbering Day

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 20.—The mail carrier will have your number today—if you don't get it yourself. Or if you live in the country, you'd better "tie the can" to the old kerosene can you use as a mail receptacle.

For this is national house numbering and mail receptacle day—part of Postmaster Hays' program in speeding up the mail service.

City and rural carriers are instructed to report everyone who does not toe the mark. Then the postmasters will act.

CONTRIBUTIONS FOR BRANCH LIBRARY ARE RECEIVED

Number of New Volumes Upon Shelves; Evidence Shows Students Industrious

By CHARLES H. CUSHING
In Charge Glendale Branch Library

Among the new books at the branch library is a contribution made by Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Turck which includes a handy edition of Kipling, essays, letters, short stories and poems, also poetical works of Edwin Arnold containing the "Light of Asia," that wonderful portrayal of the life of Buddha, "Journal of a Neglected Wife," by Mabel H. Urner, who writes the "Helen and Warren" stories, "My Wife," by Edward Burke, "A Corner in Women and Other Follies," by Masson, "Memories of Henry VIII of England, "Marguerite Hunter," dealing with spiritualism, "Arrow of Gold," by Conrad, "Your Affectionate Godmother," by Elinor Glyn, letters of excellent advice to a young girl on the eve of coming out, and other volumes.

Among the purchases just made is a set of Edgar Guest's poems, "A Heap o' Livin'," "The Path to Home," "When Day is Done," "Just Folks," and "Over Here."

"Leaves of Grass," by Walt Whitman, "Many Junes" and "Sir Henry" by Archibald Marshal.

"Rilla of Ingleside," by Montgomery, continues the "Anne of Green Gables" series in the person of Anne's daughter.

"The Car That Went Abroad," a travel story covering France and Switzerland.

"Real Folks" and "The Gayworthys," by Mrs. Whitney, two old fashioned New England stories. "King Solomon's Mines" and "Allan Quartermain," by Haggard, two old time favorites. They are on the high school reading list and those who choose them will find plenty of interest and excitement.

"American Boys' Handy Book," by Beard, tells how to make and do all kinds of things in the way of sport.

Other titles of the recent purchase are:

"Everyday Adventures," by Scoville.

"Helen of the Old House," Wright.

"Producing Amateur Entertainments," by Ferris.

"Your Dog and Your Cat, How to Care for Them," Spaulding.

"The Profiteers," by Oppenheim.

"Lord Jim," by Conrad.

"Pendennis," by Thackeray.

"Adventures of a Nature Guide" and "Spell of the Rockies," by Mills.

"The Clean Heart," by Hutchinson.

"The Green Mirror," Walpole.

"Heroes and Hero Worship," by Carlyle.

About California

"California Desert Trails," by Chase.

"Mountain Trees of Southern California," by Jaeger.

"Far Away and Long Ago," by Hudson.

"Twin Travelers in India," by Wade.

"Your United States," by Bennett.

Since the opening of school the circulation has not been quite so large. This is a good sign as it shows that the young people are settling down to study in real earnest and are turning their attention to more serious reading. Dickens, Thackeray, Scott and George Eliot are now coming off the shelves after their summer's rest and the high school reading lists are frequently consulted. We hope soon to have all the titles in those lists.

INSTRUCTIVE DRILL BY HIGH SCHOOL ORGANIZATION

Parent-Teacher Association's First Regular Meeting Is Profitable, Verdict

The first regular meeting of the Glendale Union High School Parent-Teacher association was held yesterday afternoon in the cafeteria, Mrs. E. B. Wyman presiding.

Mrs. P. S. McNutt was introduced by the president and conducted a very interesting and profitable drill, which was very much appreciated by the 100 members and visitors present. The main point of the drill was the making of motions and amendments to same, bringing out the correct form of stating a motion and the various ways of amending same.

Just prior to the meeting Mrs. E. B. Moore, chairman of the courtesy committee, assisted by Mrs. W. W. Stofft, served refreshments of wafers and iced tea. They were ably assisted in the preparation of this by Miss Hanson of the domestic science department.

Officers and Chairmen

The list of officers and chairmen of the departments of the Parent-Teacher association of Glendale Union high school this year are as follows: Mrs. E. B. Wyman, president; Miss Maude Soper, vice president; Miss Eva Daniels, secretary; Mrs. B. M. Aageson, treasurer; Mrs. W. W. Stofft, historian; J. Rhea Baker, auditor; J. Rhea Baker, parliamentarian. Mrs. J. I. Wernette, program committee; G. O. Lockwood, membership; Mrs. W. W. Stofft, education; Mrs. L. T. Rowley, finance; Mrs. F. C. Ayars, philanthropy; Mrs. C. L. Peckham, patriotism; Mrs. Emil Johnson, visiting; Mrs. E. B. Moore, courtesy; Mrs. E. A. Bayley, publicity; N. C. Hayhurst, playground; juvenile court and probation, Mrs. J. B. Huntley.

Double Life Revealed by Mysterious Shooting

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—The police, investigating the fatal shooting of Frederick Shope, "ideal landlord" of apartment houses valued at more than $100,000 and at the same time known in the criminal world as Charles Reiser, "king of safeblowers," today held the widow, Mrs. Madeline Shope for questioning.

"My back was turned when Charlie shot himself," was her explanation. The suicide theory was upheld by the discovery of a tiny pistol in Shope's hand.

Shope was known to his neighbors as trustworthy and honest. He appeared to be devoted to his wife, their daughter Vera, 14, and son Kenneth, 12. Yet in the underworld he was known as the "safe blower king." He was one of the most dangerous cracksmen in the country, according to Henry Barret Chamberlin, head of the Chicago Crime commission. He had been a safe blower for a dozen years and had been arrested a number of times. At the time of his death he was at liberty on bond.

The police are inclined to believe Shope's death came as the result of an underworld feud. Mrs. Shope was the only one in the room at the time of the shooting.

Railroads Will Operate Despite Strike, Claimed

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—Asserting that the railways will operate "just the same" in spite of any strike, but admitting a strike would seriously impair the morale of the railway organizations, a statement was issued by the American Railway Executives' association, stating there could be no reduction in freight rates until wages were slashed.

The statement pointed out that the railways were in most cases only able to pay interest on their bonds and to reduce freight rates without cutting, wages would impair bond values.

The statement declared they deplored the effects upon the morale of their organizations due to threats of a strike, more than they feared the results of an attempt to carry out such threats.

The railroads cannot give good service unless employes perform their duties in good spirit and unless the employes themselves are convinced they are treated reasonably and generously by the railroad companies, the statement read.

Vocational Training Schools Failure, Says Report to President

By W. H. ATKINS
Written for International News Service.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—Practical results of the government's vocational training for ex-service men thus far have been "most discouraging," Colonel Charles R. Forbes, director of the veterans' bureau, declares in a report to President Harding.

"We will soon witness the third anniversary of the signing of the armistice," Forbes pointed out, "and yet only 5000 of the thousands who have taken vocational training have been rehabilitated to become useful citizens."

Forbes said his personal investigation of conditions in government vocational schools had convinced him that the procedure and methods pursued heretofore in rehabilitation work were not "basically sound" and repeated his recommendation for the establishment of a federal vocational university.

Cancellation of all contracts with school promoters who are charged with mulcting former service men and extorting money from the treasury by the operation of so-called "vocational institutions" will be the next step in the government's campaign for the protection of ex-soldiers, it was learned at the veterans' bureau today.

HOW MONEY GROWS

"Just a dollar" doesn't seem like much these days — it is quickly spent and forgotten.

But a dollar a week deposited regularly in a Term Savings Account drawing 4% interest will soon mount up to a considerable sum.

At the end of the first year it will total $53.05; at the end of five years $287.53; and at the end of ten years $638.04.

Isn't that worth working for?

Clubwomen and Women Voters Merge Efforts in Work Believed Vital to Country

Mrs. Maud Park. Mrs. T. G. Winter.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—That the work in which women are interested may be forwarded with the least possible waste of effort the General Federation of Women's Clubs and the National League of Women Voters will co-operate, according to a joint letter signed by Mrs. Thomas G. Winter, president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, and Mrs. Maud Wood Park, president of the National League of Women Voters, which has just been sent to the club and league state presidents.

"There are before us at this time so many important issues that it is even more than usually wasteful of strength for women agreeing upon great issues not to get the full force to be derived from co-operation," reads the letter. "The General Federation of Women's Clubs and the National League of Women Voters are both organizations of progressive women interested in the right development and the right conservation of our country's resources; they are both organized in each one of the forty-eight states; they are both supporting certain state and federal legislation, in many instances the same bills."

FOREIGN COUNTRIES PUT UP BARRIERS OF HEAVY TAXES

Many Forge Ahead of U. S. In Tariff Fences; Protection Given 'Key' Industries

By W. H. ATKINS
Written for International News Service.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20. — Reports to the federal reserve board from all parts of the world show that foreign nations are adopting more rigid systems of import and export taxes in order to protect their home industries. Many nations have forged far ahead of the United States in erecting tariff barriers to guard against "dumping" and other dangers.

"With the gradual elimination of war time cost control of foreign trade, since the armistice there has been built up in industrial countries a more rigid system of import and export tariffs than existed before the war," the board said.

Protection Is Given

"In all cases the tendency has been to increase rather than to decrease rates. Increases in government expenditures since the war have been the cause of the advance. Restriction of imports in order to pay foreign debts is a determining factor with Germany aand some of the other foreign countries whose financial strength has been seriously impaired. In the case of the stronger countries, so-called anti-dumping provisions have been common."

Nations generally are moving vigorously to give ample protection to all "key" industries, and those that are considered essential from a defense point of view, the board said.

Anti-dumping bills are characterized by provisions for import duties on goods which are being brought into a country at prices less than the cost of production in the place of origin. In some cases, provisions are adopted to eliminate price advantages of exporting countries with depreciated exchanges.

WIRTH CABINET TO HAVE REICHSTAG DECIDE FATE

If Present Ministry Should Go, Dr. Adenauer Will Be Next Premier, Report

BY S. D. WEYER
Written for International News Service

BERLIN, Oct. 20.—The fate of the Wirth cabinet is to be put up to the Reichstag, according to today's plans. If the Reichstag believes that the present ministry should go because of the adverse Upper Silesian decision, it is probable that Dr. Adenauer, president of the Reichstag and former mayor of Cologne, will be the next premier, heading a "grand coalition cabinet." Like Chancellor Wirth Dr. Adenauer is a member of the Centrum or clerical party.

Parliamentary government will face a critical test this week when the official text of the league of nations decision on Upper Silesia is made known. The Wirth ministry is expected to go into the Reichstag and say:

"When we promised faithful fulfillment of the allies' reparations ultimatum we did so figuring for an absolute certainty on the retention of the rich Silesian industrial reservoir, producing 43 per cent of Germany's coal. This indispensable district now has been taken from us despite a 5 to 3 vote in favor of Germany in the plebiscite. Rather than break fulfillment of our oath, we resign."

Declares Harding Held Hughes In Treaty Plan

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 20.—Secretary of State Hughes has been prevented by the "restraining hand" of President Harding from taking the United States into the League of Nations and from sending the Versailles treaty back to the senate, Senator Johnson, republican, of California, declared in the senate when final consideration of the German, Austrian and Hungarian treaties was resumed.

"The dangers for the American people in the present international situation lie with the secretary of state; the hope of the people rests with the president," Johnson said.

Indicates Troops May Be Used on Railroads

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Oct. 20.—Major General John L. Hines has received orders from the war department to make a survey of the entire Eighth Corps area to secure the names of all officers and men in the area who have had experience in railroad operation and construction. The report is to be forwarded to Washington on not later than noon, Octover 19.

Officers take the war department order to mean that the government is anticipating the operation of the roads of the country by military in case the threatened rail strike of October 30 is effective.

Druggists, Doctors Start Legal Fight for Liquor Supply

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 20.—A determined legal fight on the part of druggists and physicians of Los Angeles, San Francisco and other cities of the state to obtain larger allotments of liquor for medicinal purposes than now is permitted by prohibition officials was launched in federal court here.

As a result of suits filed through Attorney Theodore Bell of San Francisco, E. Forest Mitchell, prohibition director, was cited to show cause within twenty days why demands of druggists and physicians for liquor should not be fully met.

In one case Mitchell was cited to defend his refusal to issue additional prescription blanks to Dr. Robert D. Griffith, after the physician had used his allotment of 100 blanks.

In the other case Mitchell was cited to show cause why he should not issue to M. W. Hison, a druggist, a permit to purchase 500 gallons of wine in addition to the usual quarterly allotment of 100 gallons.

Bobbed Hair Back of Delinquents, Asserted

NEW YORK, Oct. 20—The growth of the modern "flapper" idea, since the war, the bobbing of the hair and the "parking" of corsets in cloakrooms at dances, has led to a startling increase in the number of delinquent cases brought to the New York children's court, according to Bernard J. Fagin, probation officer.

"True, bobbed hair does not affect the morals of a girl," said Mr. Fagin today. "But the folks at home are unable to understand this modern idea and the first disagreement in the home usually results in disruption and the girl starts on her downward path.

"Girls are not really worse than boys," continued Mr. Fagin, "but when we get them they usually have kept farther from the straight and narrow path than has the boy when he is brought to us. A boy's disorderly act is usually spontaneous or something like that. A girl's act is planned, timed and dated."

Mr. Fagin has not noticed any shifting in the delinquent figures which would lead him to believe that the boys are getting better and the girls are getting worse, a fact reported from Chicago. Boy delinquents still outnumber girl delinquents to a startling degree. According to the probation officers' report last year 45 per cent of the juvenile delinquents were boys and only 2 per cent were girls.

Measurements of the temperature of pavements in hot weather have been made in a suburb of Chicago. Asphalt was hottest, with a maximum temperature of 124. Brick registered 118 and concrete 114.

FIERY, ITCHY SKIN QUICKLY SOOTHED WITH SULPHUR

Mentho-Sulphur, a pleasant cream, will soothe and heal skin that is irritated or broken out with eczema; that is covered with ugly rash or pimples, or is rough or dry. Nothing subdues fiery skin eruptions so quickly, says a noted skin specialist.

The moment this sulphur preparation is applied the itching stops and after two or three applications, the eczema is gone and the skin is delightfully clear and smooth. Sulphur is so precious as a skin remedy because it destroys the parasites that cause the burning, itching or disfigurement. Mentho-Sulphur always heals eczema right up.

A small jar of Mentho-Sulphur may be had at any good drug store.—Advertisement.

Unborn Child Saves Mother From Waiting In Jail for Hearing

SAN DIEGO, Oct. 20.—For the sake of an unborn babe the law has stepped aside and an expectant mother who shot and killed her husband was given her freedom under $5,000 bail. While her hearing was under way in a justice court, the grand jury was hearing evidence in the case.

Mrs. Ruby Conley shot Wm. Conley after he had come home intoxicated and threatened to kill her and their little girl, the defendant alleges.

"Send for the undertaker," she quotes him as saying.

A deputy sheriff, called by neighbors, found Conley asleep in the garage and while the two men talked, Mrs. Conley shot her husband with a pistol.

Says Japan Could Not Uphold Attack on Western Coast

LONDON, Oct. 20.—In the event of war between Japan and the United States, Japan could not invade America's western coast, declared Viscount Bryce, former British Ambassador to the United States, in an article in the London Times.

Viscount Bryce, in interpreting America's present position, denied the 1920 election was a decision for American isolation. Tendencies to the contrary are already beginning to appear, said the diplomat.

Japan could never attack the western coast of America. She could not stand the financial strain of a protracted conflict with a great naval power, he added.

Jugo Slavian Soldiers on Albanian Frontier

ROME, Oct. 20.—Troops that formerly fought under General Wrangel against the Russian bolsheviks in Crimea are being massed along the Drin river on the Albanian frontier by Jugo Slavia according to information received here today. The troops are well supported with the artillery. The members of the Albanian government are reported to be resigning and the Albanian deputies are forming a "sacred union" for the defense of the country.

Double Honors Will Be Given American Heroes

PARIS, Oct. 20.—France will confer both the Cross of the Legion of Honor and the Croix De Guerre upon America's unknown soldier, it was decided today. Minister of Pensions Magitot will go to Havre October 25 and place the Cross of the Legion of Honor upon the coffin. Marshal Foch will place the Croix De Guerre upon the grave in Arlington cemetery next month.

Possibility of Fight With Japan Is Denied

ROME, Oct. 22.—The possibility of conflict between the United States and Japan even if the Washington conference is unsuccessful is "inconceivable and unthinkable," according to a statement credited by the Giornale D'Italia to the Japanese Ambassador to Italy. The diplomat denied that Japan has imperialistic, ambitious or aggressive warlike ambitions."

MAKES REPORT ON FOOD CONDITIONS THROUGH U. S.

Market Figures Are Compiled by Government to Show Outlook Under Strike

By WEBSTER K. NOLAN
Written for International News Service

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20. — Perishable food supply bases ni the United States will stave off a famine of butter, eggs, poultry and cheese for four weeks in the event of a nation-wide railway tieup, according to market figures compiled today by the bureau of markets of the Department of Agriculture here.

By a fortunate dovetailing of dates, the date set for the walkout of railway employes marks the last day of heavy transcontinental traffic in potatoes, apples, vegetables and poultry. Twenty-four thousand carloads of these foodstuffs have been and will continue to be moved daily until October 30 when the movement will be curtailed by half for the winter months.

Milk First Affected

Milk would be the first commodity affected by the nation-wide strike. The larger cities would feel the shortage greatest. Some relief in this respect might be expected from the rapid growth of the milk truck traffic, which, in many parts of the country, now operate in closest competition with the railway lines.

The first area to be affected by the strike, it is believed, will be California because employes of the Southern Pacific lines are to be the first to walk out, tentative plans of the railway brotherhoods at Chicago indicate.

California, according to market statistics, although the first area to be affected, will also be the least affected of any area, for California is rated as not dependent to any great extent on interstate shipments of foodstuffs, growing enough staple products to suffice for its own needs and as well supply areas beyond her borders. Also, in California, the truck traffic is highly developed.

Market Conditions

Market reports on perishable foodstuffs for the week ending October 1 afford a safe premise from which to deduct the length of time that the five greatest market centers—New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Boston and San Francisco—could hold out against the demand for perishable foods. These cities consume an average total of 13,000,000 pounds of butter, 400,000 cases of eggs, five and a half million pounds of dressed poultry and 5,000,000 pounds of cheese a week. Nearly 3,000,000 pounds of butter, 2,000,000 pounds of cheese and poultry and 168,000 cases of eggs are withdrawn from storage weekly to help meet the demand. It is from these figures that the statisticians estimate that these cities can hold out four weeks against a siege of famine.

'Way Down East' Attraction Tonight on Glendale Screen

The dangers of the scenes on the ice in the D. W. Griffith production of "Way Down East" were real—not only immediate through likelihood of drowning in a raging torrent of icy water, but also through the probability of colds and pneumonia. In fact, a number of the helpers, who worked so that the rescue spectacle that now thrills every onlooker at the Glendale Theatre should be successful, acquired severe colds and several were down with pneumonia. Mr. Griffith himself fell on the ice and cut his cheek so badly that he had to give up directing for several days, and Lillian Gish, who is seen floating on an ice floe to destruction over a fall, was frostbitten on her cheeks through exposure to a blizzard.

"We worked for a long time in the snow and ice scenes," says Miss Gish. "Most of the time we worked alone, for the weather was terrifically cold. When there was something of mildness in the air, the country side turned out to observe us. Mr. Griffith spurred us on and he did not ask anyone to do anything that he would not himself do.

"Struggling through the blizzard was the most exhausting part of my work. We couldn't photograph every day but were obliged to wait until conditions were just right. Every snow storm would be greeted with delight and we bundled up at once to go out into the storm. We were in New England and there were some truly frigid days and nights. But then the spring came and we had finished the picture and getting those beautiful vernal glimpses that are so greatly admired in the picture. We had a great deal to do and we kept steadily at it. No one relaxed in effort and we could feel that Mr. Griffith was creating a masterpiece. Then came the completed work after ten months of effort—and a real hit."

The matinees begin at 2:30 and one night show at 8:00 o'clock, sharp, for this famous picture's return engagement continuing on the Glendale screen today and tomorrow.

Steamship Company Is Bankrupt for Millions

WASHINGTON, Oct .20.—Claims against the United States Mail Steamship company, which is now in bankruptcy, will aggregate more than $5,000,000, William M. Bullitt, special counsel for the shipping board, announced today. He stated that the company has no visible assets.

GERMANS TO SEEK CONTROL OF BIG INDUSTRIALS

Hugo Stinnes Reported Head of Scheme to Develop British Properties

LONDON, Oct. 20.—The Daily Express understands that the arrival in this country of Herr Hugo Stinnes, Jr., son of Herr Hugo Stinnes, the financial king of Germany, is connected with a vast scheme by German business men to develop mineral properties in this country, and to secure control at some of the principal colleries in the United Kingdom of the so-called waste products, which are, in reality, more valuable than the actual coal won.

Recently an option was secured on behalf of German interests for approximately 6,000,000 tons of British pithead spoil heaps at one shilling per ton. The material is to be paid for as removed, and the option is to hold for a period of years.

The heaps taken under this option will, according to a leading mining expert, produce anything up to fifty shillings a ton in by-products.

Control Great Properties

Before the war German interests were extraordinarily busy in this direction. Certain people were in England acting under the guidance of Dr. Lemprecht, at that time one of the senior geological advisers to the German government. They controlled properties near Pickering in Yorkshire, the whole lignite deposits of Devonshire, which have been proved to amount to more than 30,000,000 tons; a coal field containing 200,000,000 tons in the Neath valleys, and other coal fields near Doncaster, in the Forest of Dean, and in Kent.

When war broke out the British government seized these properties. Herr Stinnes, Jr., is now understood to have come here for the purpose of securing fresh control of all the mining interests directly or indirectly controlled by Germany before the war.

Seek Lignite Deposits

The Germans are particularly anxious to secure control of the Devonshire deposits of lignite because it contains montan wax, a very rare substance only obtained by the Germans in the Hartz mountains. Montan wax is a wax with a very high melting point, and the secret of the manufacture of all high-class polishes, grammaphone records and many similar articles. It is largely due to the possession of this substance that these commodities were practically a German monopoly before the war.

Colliery "waste" is sought after by the Germans for the valuable by-products yielded by distillation. They include all sorts of aniline dyes, fuel oils, lubricating oil, motor spirit and pitch. The demand for aniline dyes in Germany is now so great that orders are booked up for two years ahead.

It is a fact not generally known that the whole German submarine fleet was kept at sea during the war by means of oil distilled from the coal mines of Westphalia.

Permanent Commission on Unemployed Picked

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—Secretary of Commerce Hoover has announced that the permanent commission of President Harding's unemployment conference, which will continue to work on the problem of unemployment, has been selected as follows:

Julius H. Barnes, New York; William M. Butler, Boston; Edgar E. Clarke, Washington; Joseph H. Defrees, Washington; Mortimer Fleishback, San Francisco; C. D. Markham, Chicago; Mayor Andrew J. Peters, Boston; E. M. Poston, Columbus, Ohio; Miss Ida M. Tarbell, New York; Ernest P. Trigg, Philadelphia; Miss Mary Van Kleeck, New York; Matthew Woll, Chicago; Colonel Arthur Woods, New York; Clarence Mott Woolley, New York.

LADIES! DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Use Grandma's Sage Tea and Sulphur Recipe and Nobody Will Know

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is mussy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark and glossy.—Advertisement.

Drops Into Inferno to Save Man's Life

CHICAGO—Frank A. Smith, a fireman, qualified for a Carnegie hero medal today, when he risked his life to rescue Louis Kopp, a watchman, who had been trapped on a burning dredge. Kopp, nearly smothered, had dropped into the Calumet river and was hanging to the burning dredge. He could not swim and had been in the chilly water half an hour. Meanwhile the flames were creeping closer to him and scorching his fingers and face.

Smith volunteered to try to save him. He was wrapped in sheets of wet burlap. Two citizens also volunteered and they were wrapped in burlap sheets. Then while the firemen played streams of water on them, Smith was lowered into the inferno. He seized Kopp, who was on the point of collapse, and the four men in the "human chain" were dragged to a fireboat and safety.

FIGURING WIZARDS GET READY FOR BIG MEETING

Huge Stacks of Dry Numbers In All Sorts of Styles for Arms Conference

By W. H. ATKINS

Written for International News Service.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20. — Old Man Figures will hold the whip hand at the arms parley next month. The mathematical wizards are the midgets upon whose calculations the diplomatic giants will rely in their maneuvering.

Figures, in huge stacks, showing the financial and economic effect of a particular course of political action with respect to armament are to be at the finger tips of the delegates.

The American "Big Four" will enter the conference with the most elaborate set of charts ever compiled by the government. The charts are now being prepared under the direction of Secretary of the Treasury Mellon. Secretary of State Hughes, co-operating with the treasury has asked that the classified tables lack nothing in completeness They will be so arranged that America's delegation will have detailed comparisons available upon almost every conceivable proposition that may be presented.

Digging Up Records

Secretary Mellon's experts. the best the government could bring together, are digging into the records and bringing forth every vital figure or fact bearing upon military and naval programs of all principal world powers.

Some of the charts resemble billboard posters. Great columns. running across in parallel rows. carry numerals indicating the billions of dollars spent in cost of war making and war planning. There is to be shown in minute detail all of the varied groups of war costs, together with other expenditures which are directly or indirectly caused by war plans Also there will be columns of figures revealing the results of cuts in war expenses, and how a given percentage of reduction in armament would affect all the powers participating in the conference

Experts Co-operating

Military and naval experts, and others equipped to figure the economic effects of certain lines of action involving armament reduction, are co-operating with the treasury department's staff in rushing the data to a complete stage.

After all in the back of the foremost minds statesmen will always have as a central idea the cutting of excessive taxes and of lifting, if possible, that form of oppression from the backs of people whom they represent. The economic phase is sure to stand out in the big picture. A large part of the deliberations may settle down to a battling with dry statistics on outstanding political questions inspired by the idea that by solving them, advancement in fields of finance and commerce, and greater happiness for all peoples will be attained.

'Buck' Weaver Seeks Back Pay Due Under Terms of Contract

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 20.—George "Buck" Weaver, one of the suspended members of the Chicago White Sox who was acquitted of complicity in the 1919 world series scandal, has started action to recover back pay in accordance with his contract. Through his attorney he filed suit in the municipal court against the Chicago American League ball club.

Weaver contends that he was notified by the club that if he was not proven guilty he would be reinstated. His suit is the first move in his campaign to get back into organized baseball.

The account involved in the suit is about $10,000, Weaver's attorney said.

Alien Anarchists Will Be Deported, Decision

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 20.—The policy of the Department of Justice will be to deport alien anarchists to their home countries, Attorney-General Daugherty has announced. Four alien anarchists were recently deported under protest and the attorney-general said that he will continue to order deportations of this class.

Lutheran Mission In West Persia Attacked

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20. — The American Lutheran mission at Sa'jbulak, West Persia, was attacked and looted by Kurds, according to advices to the state department from the American charge d'affaires at Terehan, who received reports of the incident from the British and French officials at Tabriz. The attack mentioned no American casualties, but stated that Monsieur Bachimont, a French citizen, was killed.

Emergency Tariff Law Extended to Feb. 1

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 20.—A bill extending the emergency tarif law from November 27 to February 1, was passed by the House late Tuesday by a vote of 197 to 74.

INDIANA BANKS ON STAR TRIO

BLOOMINGDALE, Ind., Oct. 20.—Here's the "Big Three" Indiana university is banking on to keep its eleven in the football limelight this season: Captain Johnny Kyle, greatest fullback the university has ever had; Thomas, fighting halfback, and Frank Hanny, star end, and touted as all-western punter.

SPORTS CHATTER

By BILL UNMACK

PACIFIC SPORTS SERVICE

Andy Smith, football coach at the University of California would like to see his team go through the season without any opponents going across his team's goal line for a score. With the team at his disposal at California it is possible Smith's ambition along this idea may happen.

Last year the Oregon Aggies and the University of Nevada were the only teams to score against the blue and gold of California. On the other hand, California last year scored 510 points in nine games played while the total against them amassed by Nevada and Oregon Aggies only totaled 14 points. To date this season there has been no heavy scoring by California and it does not look as though big scores will be run up. To date also no team has crossed the California line, but the games to come against such teams as Oregon, Washington State, Washington, the Pacific Fleet and Stanford are all better teams than any California has so far met.

Smith has a first varsity squad of more than fifty men and they comprise material from which Smith is finding it difficult to segregate. The fifty odd men are all good and very close to each other in ability at their respective positions. Coach Andy is giving personal attention to a very large number of these men and drills them in the different positions they are anxious to make on the team. During the games this season a great many men will be used. It is quite possible that in some of the games Smith will have an altogether different eleven finishing the game to that which started. It is also possible that as many as thirty men may play for some part of the game.

Under such conditions as these Smith will probably use different signals and perhaps order different plays to the men who were previously in the game. This will naturally help in Smith's scheme to prevent the opposition from crossing the California line.

A visiting team usually travels with about twenty players. This, of course, gives enough material for relief and for changes both in the line-up or for using new plays. At the same time a visiting team never has the material available to draw on that the home team has and the use of thirty men as against twenty may wear down the opposition but again as a general rule the twenty men of a visiting team are usually the supermen of a squad. Even allowing for this in the case of a team going against California the latter has so many men of equal ability that in so far as some of the coast smaller college teams are concerned the fourth set of players of California would easily defeat the first set of players of these smaller teams.

Followers of the California team believe that visiting teams are going to have a hard time to score on the blue and gold. Nevertheless there is a feeling down at Los Angeles that the U. S. C. is not only going to score on California, but will beat them, and up in the Pacific Northwest every effort is being made to put teams in the field that will reverse the decisions made last year.

The WORLD OVER

By FRANKLIN B. MORSE.

PACIFIC SPORTS SERVICE

There are few figures in baseball more picturesque than that of John McGraw, manager of the New York Nationals. John might be termed temperamental and some of his outbursts have been essentially pugilistic, and he has figured in the news in episodes that were not conducive to the best interests of the morale of his baseball organization. The fact that he has been the leader of the Giants for a matter of nineteen years notwithstanding, is fairly indicative of his worth. Many a man lacking the unusual capabilities of the Giant manager would have received his walking papers long ago.

We note that the terms of the contract just sent to Jess Willard by Promoter Tex Rickard for another match against Jack Dempsey have not been made public. It is respectfully suggested that one of the terms be that Jess should not approach within fifty feet of Dempsey unless the former is provided with a machine gun. Just what would happen to Jess otherwise already has been fairly well demonstrated.

No doubt there were thousands of baseball fans all over the country who were surprised to learn that various testimonials have been given for Christy Matthewson, former star pitcher of the Giants, who is battling against the ravages of tuberculosis, the proceeds of which have been sent to the ailing man. Matthewson always was a high salaried player and made money in other side issues. The fact is that Christy always was careful of his money but his business judgment has been at fault. Many of his investments turned out total losses.

Babe Ruth, who now is making more money than any other professional baseball player in the field, is not as careful of his money as he might be, and in this respect, dffers from Christy Matthewson. The Babe is not averse to taking a flyer now and again on the races and it costs him quite a tidy sum to indulge his hobby for automobiling. What can happen to a man who was careful of his earnings, and even then finds himself in financial straits, ought to be a lesson to Babe, but it's dollars to doughnuts he will not profit by the example.

Jack Johnson, former negro champion pugilist, is not finding the going as easy as he anticipated. The fact that he was a fugitive from justice and convicted under the white slave act, is not being forgotten by the public as readily as he supposed it would. Johnson, too, long assumed the "to hell with the public" attitude during the days when he had money rolling in on him from all quarters. It is only natural that this contemptuous attitude he took should be remembered.

BUT HOW DID HE DO IT?

Locals and Personals

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Daly of Venice were recent visitors with friends in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Brown, 634 Howard street, spent last evening visiting friends in Pasadena.

Dr. and Mrs. C. D. Auedke of Garden Grove, Orange county, were the guests yesterday of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Smith of 457 Pioneer Drive.

Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Snow of 609 North Maryland avenue were the dinner guests at the Los Angeles Athletic club Tuesday night of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hull.

Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Pope, who came here recently from Montreal, have moved into the home at 241 south Orange street. Mr. Pope is employed in the Jesse E. Smith garage.

Mrs. G. B. Singleton of 318 East Wilson avenue, who for the past two months and a half has been visiting friends and relatives in Kansas and the middle west is expected home this evening.

G. B. Singleton and daughter Mildred and Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Patterson of 318 West Wilson avenue were the Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Cleveland of Whittier, formerly of Glendale.

Mrs. C. J. Letts of 109 West Lomita avenue has received word of the safe arrival in Buffalo, N. Y., of her aunt, Mrs. C. A. Cunningham, who was a visitor in Glendale at the home of her niece for four months.

The first social event of the Dynamos club of the Presbyterian church will be a "Dynamic Skat" at Alhambra tonight. The twelve piece Dynamos orchestra and the Dynamos quartet will add to the entertainment of the evening.

Richardson D. Jones of 376 West Lexington drive, high school freshman, who has his left leg in a plaster cast, as a result of an injury received while practicing baseball, is in regular attendance at school and the injured member is improving as rapidly as could be expected.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Peart of 111 East Elk avenue entertained at their home last night Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Lewis of Eagle Rock. Both of the families were formerly neighbors in Belvedere, Ill., and the evening was enjoyed by recalling incidents of days gone by in "the old home town."

Mrs. Charles Cutter of 337 West Burchett street entertained a group of neighbors and friends at a pleasant thimble party, Tuesday afternoon. The house was prettily decorated with dahlias and chrysanthemums and cooling refreshments were served. The invited guests numbered ten.

It will require about three weeks to finish the work on the ten-room duplex house for Dan Tracy at 340 North Jackson street, it is announced by the Hjorth Construction company, 224 South Brand boulevard. The dwelling is very large and will contain when finished all modern conveniences.

Thomas Phillips of West Hollywood was in Glendale during the first part of the week, visiting with former friends and neighbors. Mr. Phillips, who is employed by a large Los Angeles wholesale dry goods company, formerly lived in this city for several years, having graduated from the local high school in 1916.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn H. Widmark and small son, Glenn, Jr., of Pasadena, were recently in Glendale visiting with Mrs. Widmark's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Morehouse of 1000 East Lomita avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Widmark are former residents of Glendale, having moved from here to the Crown city a few weeks ago.

Among the many recent hunting parties to Baldwin and Big Bear lakes was that composed of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Mercer, H. L. Hock, Miss Ida Hock and Harry Loomis of this city and Miss Eva Baber of Alhambra. The party made the trip in two machines and were gone five days, arriving home late Tuesday evening. They report many hunters but few ducks, although they managed to return with several limits to their credit.

Mrs. Leonard W. Bradley, 424 North Jackson street, and mother, Mrs. Ella C. Witham, 822 East Chestnut street, attended a reunion Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Wallace Gregg, Whittier, the event being a gathering of a number of former teachers of the Whittier State school. Mrs. Bradley and Mrs. Gregg were former teachers and the reunion Tuesday was a very enjoyable gathering. Among those present was Mrs. Sherman Smith, wife of the former superintendent of the school.

Mrs. Ella W. Richardson of 315 North Brand boulevard, accompanied by Miss Ida Waite, Miss Jeanette Abel and Miss Esther Crandall were guests Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Lolita Mason in Hollywood. Miss Mason's home is most attractively furnished with pieces of furniture and other antiques procured by her while she resided in Vienna and other European cities. The guests had a most delightful evening inspecting the many interesting things in her home. Miss Mason is also a pianist of note and played several numbers for her guests.

The Madrigal club met Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock for their regular practice hour at the Odd Fellows' hall, 115½ East Broadway. With Mrs. John W. Cotton, president; Mrs. J. A. Wright, accompanist; Mrs. C. A. Parker, director, and twenty-two other talented members, everything looks auspicious for a year of successful work. Mrs. Virginia Freeman, a talented soprano, who has had experience in concert work, is a welcome new addition to the club. They are practicing toward the concert to be held in mid-winter, which will be a treat to the music lovers of Glendale.

Locals and Personals

C. W. Ingledue, 501 East Wilson avenue, is spending the day with his family at Santa Monica.

Mrs. A. S. Hoch, mother of Mrs. C. J. Letts of 109 West Lomita avenue, is spending two weeks at Murietta Springs.

R. K. Snow of 609 North Maryland avenue enjoyed a duck hunting party at Little Bear lake over the week-end. He was fortunate to bag a number of fine birds.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Hovey of Los Angeles spent the past week-end in this city as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Peart of 111 East Elk avenue. Mrs. Peart is a sister of Mr. Hovey.

Andrew McDonald of 215 East Garfield avenue and Ludwig Gossman of Sycamore Canyon road motored to Sunland on Tuesday night, where they attended a party at the home of friends.

Armand K. Dair of 818 East Colorado boulevard was recently visited by Basil R. Green of Los Angeles. The two young men are friends of several years' standing, having formerly been schoolmates in this city.

Charles A. Forrest, general western agent of the Frisco lines, is spending the week as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Letts of 109 West Lomita avenue. Mr. Forrest has many former Texas friends who are living in Glendale.

Mrs. F. W. Chambers of 736 South Glendale avenue is giving a Hallowe'en tea this afternoon to all of the mothers of children in the B7 class of the Intermediate school, of which Miss Chase is teacher. There will be games and a general get-acquainted good time.

Floyd King, who was elected yell leader by the Athletic association of the Intermediate school, has been transferred to Burbank school. Petitions are now being circulated for indorsement of new candidates and an election will be called at an early date to fill the position. Each candidate requires an indorsement of thirty signatures. The most prominent candidate now on the field is Edgar Wolbach, of A-7-I's, member of the soccer team and enthusiastic supporter of school activities.

Mrs. R. W. Meeker of 1320 East Colorado street, as chairman of the Glendale women in charge of remodeling and refurnishing the kitchen at Monte Vista home for undernourished children of Los Angeles county, is in receipt of a letter from that institution saying that they are planning to hold a "Harvest Ingathering" Wednesday afternoon, October 26, from 2 to 4 o'clock. Donations of canned fruits, dried vegetables, etc., will be received. All of the towns and cities in the valley have organized and will take part in this event. The Glendale committee is also planning to give a Hallowe'en ball October 28 in Pearl Keller hall, for the purpose of raising money to finish paying for furnishings purchased for the kitchen of this home.

Price on New Essex Is Cut to $1475; Reach Lowest Mark

Old Man Hi-Price was given a terrible jolt this morning at the Glendale Hudson Motor company's quarters, 230 North Brand boulevard, by a knockout blow from the glove of Mr. Ree Duction, new salesman for the firm.

Announcement was made that the price of the new and improved Essex has been cut to $1475 which is $120 lower than it has ever been.

L. G. Davis, manager of the local agency stated this morning the new price marked a record for a high grade automobile. He is of the opinion that this low quotation cannot prevail when the upward trend starts once more. Mr. Davis is confident that now is the time to buy.

The prices of the Essex cars are now $1475 for the touring and roadster, $1690 for the cabriolet and $2340 for sedan.

Three Roofs Daily Record Being Made by Lumber Company

Three roofs a day—that is the record of the roofing department of Bentley-Schoeneman Lumber company, 460 West Los Feliz Road.

P. E. Maxwell, who is in charge of the "Bentley Built-Up" roofs, has three crews busy and needs more men, so heavy is the demand for the gray granite, red brick and green slate combination roofs. They also lay Pioneer roofing which comes in rolls.

The roofing department is one of the features of Bentley service to the builder.

Intermediate Team Is Winner at Volleyball

A large and interested crowd of spectators cheered a hotly contested inter-school game of volley ball, played at the Intermediate school grounds Wednesday evening between Eagle Rock and Intermediates, resulting in a score of 2 to 0 for the Intermediates.

After the game the visiting team was entertained at a social half hour in the domestic science room and punch was served.

The lineup was as follows:

Eagle Rock—Mary B. Taylor, captain; Hazel Grant, Loeta Bannister, Edith Hikes, Vanette Ward, Fyrn Feaster, Ruby LeClere, Marjorie Morris and Nell Nicholls.

Intermediate — Barbara Kranz, captain; Dorothy Humans, Bernice Collins, Ruth Rames, Consuela Mareno, Elinor Kopp, Helen Hone, Selda Kocher and Mabel Horner.

Miss Helen M. Londergan, Eagle Rock coach, refereed.

Real Live Prince Will Appear Before Intermediate Pupils

Girls and boys at the Intermediate school today are all in a flutter. A real live prince is coming to visit them tomorrow morning and if the boys seem to stand just a little straighter parents will know the reason.

"The mountain couldn't go to Mohammed so Mohammed went to the mountain." Eight hundred or more pupils at the Intermediate school couldn't afford to rent row boats and camels and go to the Euphrates valley, so Chaldea is being brought to them—in a vivid, realistic, interesting lecture, by Prince Raphael Emmanuel, son of a high priest of his country and a direct descendant of Nebuchadnezzar and the ancient Babylonian kings of Biblical history.

Glendale's contractors, who point with pride to the building boom in progress in the vicinity, may be interested in the lecture which starts at 3:15 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Babylon was the original "big town." The city proper covered an area of 100 square miles—which is somewhat larger than the corporate limits of Glendale. In fact it is five times the area of London. This area was enclosed by stone walls 335 feet high and 85 feet wide. Our local masons may figure the cost of construction for themselves. History does not disclose whether or not it was the purpose of these walls to keep the citizens in or the home-seekers out. Anyhow, it is understood that the Babylon Chamber of Commerce was not very cordial towards newcomers and the glad hand usually held a dagger.

All these facts and a lot more, as for instance why Nebuchadnezzar's father was named Nabapolassar and whether his wife called him "Neb" or "Nezzar" will be explained by the Prince of Chaldea, who will lecture in his native costume.

"The pupils will have an opportunity to hear and see a real live prince," stated Miss Carrie Noble, principal of the school, this morning. It won't be like the time they stood out in the sun for about two hours to see the king and queen of Belgium, and then were disappointed because they motored down another street. The Prince will be here and I think he will give a very instructive and entertaining lecture." Parents and adults are welcome.

New Parish House to Be Constructed by Catholic Church

A new parish house to match the architecture of the Holy Family Catholic church is being planned now by the same architect who designed the new $65,000 church edifice, according to an announcement by the Rev. Father James S. O'Neill.

The new residence will be two stories in height and will contain a number of rooms, including quarters for Father O'Neill and an assistant, as well as church offices and reception rooms. It will cost in the neighborhood of $25,000.

The location of the parish house will be just west of the church and connected with it at the rear by a covered arcade which will afford easy access from the parish house to the altar in inclement weather. The residence and the court are being designed in Spanish style.

Work will be commenced on the new building in a few weeks. Meanwhile Father O'Neill is residing at 827 East Lomita street. He has advertised for bids and will sell the house on the new church property to the highest bidder. He considers it an excellent bargain.

Big Entertainment and Concert to Be Given by Baptists

"Kid Hi-Jinx" in his lair in the basement of the First Baptist church, Wilson avenue and Louise street, today is lurking and waiting for the arrival tonight of the members of the Tri-Mu class. He promises to show them a big time and Mrs. Jinx is spending the afternoon preparing the refreshments.

Tonight is the big night for the sixty-five members of this class. It is the occasion for their big entertainment and concert. An invitation has been issued for all the males in the vicinity between the ages of 18 and 60 to attend. A musical and dramatic program will be staged in the church auditorium. It will feature both home and imported talent.

The Tri-Mu class, which contains many high school students, is making an active campaign to increase its membership.

Reciprocity Luncheon Is Held by Chapters

The P. E. O. reciprocity luncheon was held yesterday at the Congregational church, with Chapters AH, BA, L, and CJ of Glendale and Chapter U of Burbank represented. The special guests were Mrs. Lola P. Bennett, state president. The president of the reciprocity bureau, which had charge of the luncheon, is Mrs. Vernon Putnam.

The dining tables were decorated in the P. E. O. colors of yellow and white, and were very attractive. After the luncheon the meeting was called to order by Mrs. Putnam. Mrs. Bennett, state president, gave a partial report of the supreme convention, which was held in Kansas City, Mo. After her talk there was a musical program, including piano duets by Mrs. E. W. W. Hayward and Mrs. H. V. Brown, and vocal solos by Miss Isabel Isgrigg, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Harriett Randall. There were about sixty-five members present.

If you ask, "What do I get out of it?" before you ask yourself, "What can I put into the job?"—you will get out of it.

COMMENT THAT'S ALL

Governors and Workers Occupation Essential Speed Postal Service Flier to Be Disciplined

By Gil A. Cowan

GOVERNORS of the middle western states at a meeting in Des Moines, Iowa, opine that the immediate reduction of freight rates and a lessening of interest rates will restore normal business and solve the nation's unemployment problem.

The so-called deflation policy of the federal reserve bank is scored in the governors' resolutions, for it has penalized the farmer unduly. The Cummins-Esch rail bill also was condemned for its interference in the present power controlling freight rates.

It is true that the Iowa, Illinois and other middle western farmers have felt the deflation, but how about the business man and how about the workers? They, too, have their share of the burden to stand. Men in Glendale today are hanging by a narrow thread of hope that conditions will permit them to save something.

For those who have money the pinched economic conditions in the east have but slightly affected this prosperous community. And, fortunately, practically everyone is employed, so that section cannot complain. But about the farmer state executives who balk at remedial legislation for the railroads:

Does not their attitude sound similar to that of the rail workers who threaten strike. Yes, self-preservation is the first law of nature.

Unemployment in southern California will become noticeable unless the city and county authorities give the innumerable "floaters," commonly known as species hobo Americanus, something more important to do than camping in the Los Angeles river bottoms or other jungles.

Six such gentry arrived on one oil tank car from the north yesterday afternoon and debarked from a Southern Pacific freight train in the vicinity of the Tropico Potteries, Inc., at the railroad crossing at Los Feliz Road. One of the sextet evidently was a girl, although dressed like a man.

Out of this number one or two appeared to be susceptible of respectability. The others had the air of varying degrees of failure and criminality. There is no question but what their efforts should be turned to useful occupation if it is nothing more than building pavement on those streets where Glendale, as well as Los Angeles, needs smooth highways most seriously.

Did the mail carrier get your number today? And for those who live in the country and use such modern conveniences as a kerosene can for a mail box—well, you can "tie the can" to that idea.

Throughout the nation house numbering and mail receptacle day will speed the service, according to Postmaster General Will Hays.

City and rural carriers were instructed to report everyone who is not complying with the request of the department. While the punishment is not great and no fines are attached, these people will be dealt with by the postmaster—a new one here soon, if you please.

"Courtmartial."

For the man who has been in the army that term is abhored like nothing else.

Yet that very word was used by Secretary of War Weeks, it is said, when some navy aviator yesterday flew low many times over William and Mary college down in Virginia while President Harding was speaking. The motor almost drowned out the president's words.

"If he were an army pilot he would get courtmartialed," the secretary is quoted as having said in threatening to report the flier to the secretary of the navy for disciplinary action.

With the threat of a railroad tie-up the first of the month thousands of tourists are arriving in Southern California now, several weeks ahead of time. They realized perfectly the possibilities in the rail crisis and have been rushing reservations ever since the "big five" brotherhoods announced the strike orders.

Everybody in the east should appreciate the fact that Southern California is almost independent for food, fuel and other necessities of life. While it is doubtful if this favored state would long let the rest of the world roll by, there is no question but what the populace here could get along very nicely for several months without railroads.

No one in Glendale will vote for the suspension of service, however.

Dr. W. H. Bucher Is Medical Chief for County Institution

Dr. W. H. Bucher of 610 West Broadway, who has had offices with Dr. Edward Swift in the Glendale Theatre building, has become the medical superintendent of the Olive View Sanitarium at Sylmar, near San Fernando, an institution conducted by the county of Los Angeles.

Dr. Bucher recently passed highest in a test given by the civil service board, the first question being in effect: How much would it cost to take care of the tubercular cases in a city of a million people.

The local specialist spent years in the study of the disease with which he is now dealing, having served with the naval forces of the United States overseas. He is a member of the local American legion post and the Glendale Pathological society.

Some folks would judge the popularity of an actress by the flowers she presents to herself.

Local Team Wins In Soccer Game, 6 to 2

Cleated shoes and the fact that they were playing on their own gridiron did not enable the Pasadena Military academy to beat the Intermediate school in a return soccer game yesterday afternoon. The local team won by the score of 6 to 2, which is similar to the score of the first game. Glendale boys were handicapped because it was the first time that they had played upon a grass field. On this account, Russell Lavelle, outside left forward, slipped and missed two kicks at goal although he made up for them by good work later. Allen Lovell was center forward.

Santa Monica is to come to Glendale for a game with Intermediate next Thursday afternoon.

Executive Board for Business Women Meets

At a meeting of the executive board of the Glendale Business and Professional Women's club, which was held Tuesday night, with Mrs. Margaret Biggs presiding, it was decided that the next meeting of the organization, which will be October 25, will be of a social character, to which all of the business women of this city are invited. One of the chief aims of this new organization is to promote acquaintance and cooperation between business women for the purpose of not only social but business advancement.

Arthur Kachel to Give Reading at High School

Arthur Kachel of Hollywood is scheduled to give a dramatic reading from Israel Zangwill's "Melting Pot," under the auspices of the student body at the high school tomorrow morning.

Last term Mr. Kachel gave a reading from "The Music Master," which was well received by the students. Miss Mona Gardner, dramatic director, complimented him upon his art and announced this morning that there had been no trouble whatever in "selling out the house" to capacity.

TO VISIT DATE FESTIVAL

S. P. Stanford, 245 South Orange street, and his son, Charles Stanford and family of Santa Monica, have left for Indio to attend the date festival. S. P. Stanford expects to remain in Indio for several months.

ENTERTAINS AT LUNCHEON

Mrs. E. S. Enking of Hollywood was the luncheon guest yesterday of Mrs. A. H. Montgomery, 415 South Central avenue.

The largest steel smokestack is said to be in Newark, N. J. It extends 128 feet in the air and is five feet eight inches in diameter.

With an annual production of 14,500,000 pounds, Cincinnati claims to lead all other cities of America in the manufacture of oleomargarine.

FOLLOWS PERSEVERANCE

Success may not come in a day. It may not come in a week, a month or a year. It never does come in a week, a month or a year. But soon or late it is bound to come, and with gratifying fullness, if confidence is sustained despite all reverses, if effort is manfully maintained. Whoever follows this rule of faithful perseverance must in the end find a place among life's winners. For with repeated effort power grows. And power thus augmented proves irresistible at last.

W. C. T. U. WILL MEET

The Glendale W. C. T. U., of which Mrs. Ruby Smart is president, will meet tomorrow, Friday, afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. A. T. Crawford, 301 North Cedar street. The topic will be "Christian Citizenship." Mrs. R. W. Mottern will have charge of the program.

TO SPEND WINTER HERE

Mrs. Lee Farnam and daughter, Miss Thelma Farnam of Laguna Beach have taken apartments at Broadway and Maryland avenue and will spend the winter in Glendale. Mrs. Farnam is a cousin of Mrs. M. S. Kuehny of 368 West Doran street.

South Pasadena and Glendale Teams Will Clash This Afternoon

Several hundred enthusiastic students of the local high school are planning to attend today's annual football clash between Glendale and South Pasadena on the latter team's field. Both of the squads are keen rivals of many years' standing and it is reported that the Suburbans are out "teeth and toenail" to avenge the 28 to 7 defeat that their lightweight team suffered at the hands of the local Midgets last Tuesday.

On the other hand, Coach Hayhurst's warriors are just as confident that they will wade through the Tigers in the same manner that their lighter schoolmates did on Tuesday afternoon. At any rate, it is going to be a "dern good game" and is attracting the interest of pigskin followers from all parts of southern California. The result of today's contest will have a large bearing on the question of Glendale's ability to repeat last year's feat of running away with the Central league pennant. To date, the Locals have not lost a single contest and the boys are out to keep up the good work.

Although the line-up that will be presented in today's game will not appear as such a formidable array of talent that started the season several weeks ago Hayhurst will nevertheless be able to display a far from weak team. Due to injuries and disqualification of various players on account of eligibility rules of the league, several regulars will be missing when the starter's whistle blows. Those who will be made conspicuous by their absence will be Captain Dutcher, "Giant" Fraley, Fred Stofft and Ray Goss. The first three named stars are out of the game on account of slight injuries.

George M. Lindsey's Company Is Busy

The George M. Lindsey company, architecture, engineering and construction, 127 West Broadway, is busy working out a plan for store building for Henry M. Severin of Highland park. The plans call for a brick and frame building, 50 by 50 feet, and Mr. Lindsey will have the design completed in a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Burger Back From Extended Trip Through East

After a five months' visit in the east Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Burger, 314 North Central avenue, returned to Glendale last night. Mrs. Burger's brother, Truman Gillfillan of Rinnersburg, Penn., and other relatives at Maryville, north of Pittsburg, were visited. Mr. Burger's father, S. C. Burger of Covington, Virginia, and many relatives and early acquaintances were called on.

The extended trip took Mr. and Mrs. Burger to the principal cities including Chicago, Philadelphia, Pittsburg, New York, Baltimore and Boston. The weather, says Mr. Burger, was very warm in the eastern states during the summer months, the warmest it has been for four years.

Business conditions, Mr. Burger states, while not near as good as in California, are improving and there seems to be a general trend towards readjustment and stabilization.

"All the while we were gone," said Mr. Burger, "we did not find a place that suited us as well as Glendale. We have been here eleven years, and we like it better every day."

W. F. B. Gurnee Buys Interest In Garage In Eagle Rock City

Announcement has just been made of the recent purchase by W. F. B. Gurnee of 340 North Cedar street of a half interest in an Eagle Rock garage and automobile repair shop. Mr. Gurnee's partner in the deal is Frank Jolson, a resident of the neighboring city and an experienced garage man.

Immediately following their acquisition of the property the men closed the shop, which is now undergoing a series of alterations and improvements that will make it one of the largest and most up-to-date establishments of its kind in Eagle Rock. The Happy Valley garage is the name that has been attached to the business.

Mr. Gurnee, who is well known to numerous local residents, is an old timer in Glendale, having come to this city more than ten years ago. During the entire time he has been employed by the Glendale Mill company, where he is a millman. His resignation from the local concern will take effect this week.

W. G. Boyd Company's Office Is Now Altered

Alterations have been made in the rear office of the W. G. Boyd Construction company, 201 North Brand boulevard, the desks being changed and a rack installed for filing away the blue prints and drawings.

PENNSYLVANIA ROAD LEADS CAMPAIGN ON R. R. BOARD

today and its ability to settle them will determine its future status as an agency for the administration of the national railway code. Failure to function efficiently in the present cases, one of which is the most important railway labor crisis in years, will, it is believed, lead to wirtual abolition of the board and the establishment of some other administrative body to deal with railway problems.

It was regarded as no secret here today that the eyes of the administration in Washington are turned on the Labor board and the outcome of its efforts to avert the threatened strike of railroad workers will be awaited with keenest interest at the national capital.

At 2 o'clock this afternoon the members of the Labor board and the chiefs of the railroad brotherhoods will hold a "private and executive conference" on the rail strike situation. Reports that the conference would be public proved unfounded. It was said today that the meeting would be informal and the brotherhood chiefs and the board members would "talk cold turkey" to each other without regard for how their statements might appear in print.

While admitting that the board lacks the authority, under the transportation law which created it, to enforce any decision, members of the board were frank in stating they were going to demand a "showdown."

Before the board went into session with the labor chiefs it faced a test of its power with the railroads themselves. The Pennsylvania road, which refused to obey regulations imposed by the board by calling a new election for the selection of shopcrafts representatives, appeared before the board to show cause why it should not be cited for defiance of the board's rules.

Among labor men assembled here there was the keenest interest in the outcome of the Pennsylvania case. They declared it would demonstrate the ability of the board to compel the railroads to obey its rules and asserted that if the roads could not be made to obey the unions certainly could not.

Pennsylvania Road Seeks Employes With Advertising

PITTSBURG, Pa., Oct. 20.—Anticipating that the Chicago peace conference may not avert the great strike scheduled for October 30, the Pennsylvania road today began an extensive advertising campaign for engineers, firemen, conductors, trainmen and switchmen, to take the places of those who will walk out if the strike goes through. Other roads, including the New York Central, Baltimore & Ohio, Bessemer & Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburg, will take similar action before the end of the week, it is understood here.

Thirty-four Thousand Men Declare They Will Not Quit

PHILADEDPHIA, Pa., Oct. 20.—Thirty-four thousand maintenance of way employes of the Pennsylvania railroad today telegraphed the officers here their intention to remain at work if the threatened railway strike materilaizes.

The telegram was received from Wilmington, Del., where officers of the Pennsylvania system division of the Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way employes and shop laborers held a meeting to discuss the strike.

Propose to Expend $6,000,000 to Help Unemployed In State

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Oct. 20.—The state's unemployment program for the winter and spring contemplates expenditure of more than $6,000,000, according to announcement of Egerton Shore of the state board of control, who is co-ordinating the plan.

The complete plan is now ready for the aproval of Governor Wm. D. Stephens and will probably be launched about December 1. More than thirty major buildings are included, the $3,000,000 capitol annex building heading the list.

The division of public works will pay out $1,108,000 alone in wages to laborers, it is estimated.

Buron R. Fitts Is Candidate for Legion Commander

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 20.—Buron R. Fitts, deputy district attorney and past commander, department of California of the American legion, will leave Los Angeles next Tuesday for Kansas City as delegate to the national convention of the legion. He may return home as commander-in-chief of the national organization.

The California delegation to the national session of the legion is understood to be practically unanimously favorable to the candidacy of Captain Fitts for the highest office in the order because of his achievements in obtaining the enactment of legislation to benefit the former service men of the state. His record in this respect has attracted national attention among members of the legion.

Glendale Represented at Near East Session

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 20.—Glendale was represented by Mrs. Mary Dow, of the Tuesday Afternoon club; Dr. O. P. Rider, of the Tropico Presbyterian church; Mrs. R. W. Mottern of W. C. T. U.; H. L. Finley and Dr. J. K. Gilkerson of Presbyterian church, and Rev. R. W. Mottern at the annual conference of Near East Relief here yesterday in the Y. M. C. A. and First Congregational church.

The meeting, which was attended by more than 150 prominent southern Californians, approved a plan to assume responsibility for 10,000 orphans assigned to this district.

Outstanding impressions of a recent visit to the Near East and America's participation in relieving the children there was told by John W. Mace and Dr. A. C. McCrae, of New York City, E. Guy Talbott of Pasadena, and a group of returned workers, including Misses Mabel Farrington, Evelyn Trestle, Elise Truran and Irene Eldred.

A feature of the conference was the showing before a large audience of a motion picture, "Alice in Hungerland," which visualized existing conditions in Bible Lands.

New Bungalows Secured to Care for Students

All is tranquil at the Pacific school once more and the Columbus school is in a quiver of anticipation.

The two new bungalows on the Pacific school grounds are now being occupied by youngsters. In one Mrs. Eleanor B. Badour has a class of the high first and low second grades while in the other Mrs. Theodore A. Stogdill has a class combined from the third high and low fourth grades. At the Columbus school the new bungalow is to be ready for occupancy next Monday. It will be in charge of Miss Bess L. Aldrich.

The contract under which these bungalows were purchased by the board stated that they should be ready two weeks from date signed. This contract was not kept as Richardson D. White, superintendent of schools, stated this morning that the first bungalow had been two weeks and the third three weeks late. Because there was no penalty included in the contract he does not believe it will be possible to obtain a rebate.

LEAVE ON EASTERN TRIP

David Black and family of 1450 Kenneth Road are leaving today on a five weeks' business and pleasure trip to Chicago and other eastern cities. Mr. Black states that he is anticipating being in Washington, D. C., on November 11, and will represent Glendale in any and all ways possible. Mr. Black's residence on Kenneth Road will be occupied during his absence by James Horton and family.

BURBANK MAN IS INJURED

Charles Jackson of Burbank fell off an Original Stage Line bus at San Fernando road and Columbus avenue this morning and was seriously injured. He was taken to the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital by Dr. J. E. Eckles who reported the accident to the police department.

REPORTS AUTO COLLISION

R. Seifert of Los Angeles reports to the police that Miss Finan Hitchcock of Los Angeles was the driver of the machine which smashed the rear of his car at San Fernando and Los Feliz roads last night.

Long Cotton Haul Is Worth $653 to Rancher

SAN ANGELO—Charlie Chandler, Terrell county sheepman, appeared Saturday on the local market with seven bales of unginned cotton which he had hauled 180 miles, believed to be a record distance for the south, on three wagons, drawn by mules. The staple was grown by irrigation. It graded strict middling and brought $19.75 a pound, the proceeds totaling $653.

Chandler will haul home the seed to feed to his livestock. He says he won't plant another cotton crop because he lives too far from a market.

To get seven unginned bales on three wagons, Chandler packed several hundred pounds each in wool sacks. The caravan, coming from far across the Pecos river, was eight days on the road.

HERE'S ONE MODEST JUDGE

DENVER — Modesty prevented Judge Rice from viewing a dimpled knee. Mrs. Lola Carteen wanted to show the court where she had been struck on the leg by a neighbor. Rice stopped her as she rolled down her stocking.

BUT HOW DID HE DO IT?

BOSTON—Hollis Shaw, who gave his occupation as "laborer," filed a petition in bankruptcy, giving liabilities of $60,927 and no assets.

Cat Braves Fire to Save Kittens' Lives

MARYSVILLE—This town has a cat heroine.

Fire destroyed the John Carstenbrook farm. Knowing her kittens were in the barn a fine Maltese cat rushed madly into the burning building and succeeded in rescuing two of her litter. In trying to save the lives of her little ones she had an eye and an ear burned, and the claws on her feet were burned off and her fur badly singed.

She was a sorry-looking spectacle running around while the firemen were fighting the blaze.

SELLS GASOLINE FOR OIL

HINTON, W. Va.—A local merchant had the scare of his life the other day. In the darkness of night he rolled out and opened a barrel of gasoline, selling several gallons of the fluid for kerosene before his mistake was discovered and his patrons could be notified. The gasoline was being freely used in lamps by his customers, but fortunately there were no accidents.

SAYS PINCHES HURT HER

DETROIT—Because her husband pinched her so much, it marred her beauty and interfered with her work on the stage, Maybelle Corney was granted a divorce.
